

Marek Ignaszak

General Information

Address Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main Professur für VWL, insb. Makroökonomik und Arbeitsmärkte
60629 Frankfurt/Main
Email ignaszak@uni-frankfurt.de

Website <https://marekignaszak.github.io>
Date of Birth 23 Nov 1989
Nationality Polish

Current Position

09/2020- Assistant Professor
-present Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany

I am affiliated with the Department of Money and Macroeconomics at the Goethe University Frankfurt where I teach labor economics. I am also a member of the Frankfurt Quantitative Macro Group.

Education

10/2014- Ph.D. in Economics
-06/2020 Bonn Graduate School of Economics, University of Bonn, Germany
summa cum laude

Research and teaching fields: macroeconomics, labor economics, numerical methods.

10/2008- B.Sc. and M.Sc. in Economics
-02/2014 Warsaw School of Economics, Warsaw, Poland
Major: Quantitative Methods in Economics and Information Systems

Teaching Experience

2018, 2019 Class Teacher
and 2020 London School of Economics and Political Science / University of Oxford

Class Teacher for the Wouter den Haan's Summer School: Tools for Macroeconomists. I taught state-of-the-art techniques to solve, analyze, and estimate models with heterogeneous agents, continuous-time models, and models in which the economy can be at the zero lower bound.

2017, 2018 Teaching Assistant
University of Bonn

TA for the introductory sequence of macroeconomics for Ph.D. students.